

State of Tennessee

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 146

By Henry, Herron, Haynes, Tracy, Ford

A RESOLUTION to honor and congratulate Bob Dudley Smith of Nashville on his induction into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame.

WHEREAS, it is fitting that this General Assembly pause to specially recognize those extraordinary athletes and coaches who, through their magnificent exploits, have brought honor and distinction to this State; and

WHEREAS, one such estimable individual is Bob Dudley Smith of Nashville, who was honored with induction into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame on February 11, 2011, a fitting recognition of his extraordinary athletic career; and

WHEREAS, a Nashville native born on August 29, 1930, Bob Dudley Smith attended Eakin Grammar School, Cavert Junior High School, West End High School, and Vanderbilt University; and

WHEREAS, a stellar multi-sport athlete, Mr. Smith was a three-year letterman in basketball and baseball at West End High School and led the basketball team to two State Championships in 1946 and 1948, finishing runner-up in 1947; and

WHEREAS, Bob Dudley Smith received numerous accolades and honors during his amazing high school basketball career, including being selected as Nashville's and Tennessee's Most Outstanding Basketball Player in 1947-48, chosen for the All-City 1st team in 1948, and named to the Nashville Men's All-Time Basketball Squad for the years 1943-53; and

WHEREAS, although he was offered a baseball bonus contract to play for the Boston Red Sox organization, Mr. Smith chose instead to attend Vanderbilt University on a basketball scholarship; and

WHEREAS, continuing his illustrious playing career for the Commodores, Bob Dudley Smith quickly became a Vandy legend on the hardwood as he lead the team to its only Southeastern Conference Tournament title in 1950-51, beating the University of Kentucky which was ranked as the top team in the Nation; and

WHEREAS, considered by many to be one of the best free throw shooters and field goal shooters in Vanderbilt history, Mr. Smith was named among the top 100 athletes to ever play sports at Vanderbilt and among the top thirty basketball players all-time to ever wear the black and gold; and

WHEREAS, once again a two-sport star, he lettered three years each in both basketball and baseball at Vanderbilt during a time when freshmen were not allowed to participate in varsity sports; his prowess on the diamond led to his working out with the Detroit Tigers in the summer of 1950 and a contract offer, but he once again decided to continue his education at Vanderbilt; and

WHEREAS, graduating from Vanderbilt University in June 1952, Bob Dudley Smith was called to duty by the U.S. Naval Reserve and proudly served his country during the Korean War until March 1954 when he received his honorable discharge; and

WHEREAS, after leaving military service, Mr. Smith pursued a baseball career and signed a bonus contract with the New York Giants. Playing three years with the Giants' organization, he returned to Nashville with his wife and first child in 1956 to begin his business career, joining Block Brothers that October as a Supervisor and Buyer; and

WHEREAS, a brilliant businessman, Bob Dudley Smith was named Executive Vice President of the Tennessee Association of Real Estate Boards in 1961 and was honored as the Outstanding Trade Executive of 1961-62; and

WHEREAS, he joined the Tennessee League of Savings Institutions Association as Executive Vice President in 1962 and would serve in that capacity until 1985, when he was named

President – a post he would hold until his retirement in June 1993 after thirty-one years with the organization; and

WHEREAS, during his years with the Tennessee League of Savings Institutions, Mr. Smith worked closely with the various Governors, State Legislators, U.S. Senators and U.S. Representatives from across Tennessee concerning the important legislative issues affecting the Savings and Loan industry; he only had one bill not approved by the General Assembly during his thirty-plus year career; and

WHEREAS, continuing his athletic pursuits later in life, Bob Dudley Smith has extensive acclaim on the tennis court and is very active in amateur tennis worldwide as a member of the United States Tennis Association, the Tennessee Tennis Association, the Nashville Tennis Association, the International Tennis Federation of London, and the International Tennis Hall of Fame; and

WHEREAS, since the early 1980s he has been a highly ranked player in men's doubles tennis for his age group, winning numerous titles – including twelve International Men's Doubles Championships in Europe and fifteen runner-up finishes in International Men's Senior Doubles Championships since 1997; and

WHEREAS, a vital part of his community, Mr. Smith has been very active over the years in many charitable, civic, and church organizations such as the Nashville Symphony, the Nashville Ballet Society, Downtown Kiwanis Club, Loyal Order of the Moose, Nashville Sports Council, Friends of Centennial Park and the Parthenon, Cheekwood Botanical Garden & Art Museum, Richland Country Club, and Belle Meade Methodist Church; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Smith has lent his time and talents over the years to such wonderful organizations as the Boy Scouts of America, the Middle Tennessee Multiple Sclerosis Society, and Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity; and

WHEREAS, no stranger to awards and accolades, Bob Dudley Smith served as President of the Tennessee Society of Association Executives and was the group's first recipient of the Outstanding Executive Award in 1985; he received the very prestigious Certified Association Executive designation at the American Society of Association Executives in 1978; and

WHEREAS, his many accomplishments aside, Bob Dudley Smith is most appreciative of the love and support of his wife, Jeanne Haun Evans Smith, and is the proud father of four children, Bob Dudley Smith, Jr., Bradford Evans Smith, Randall Boyd Smith, and the late Darrell Hamilton Smith; and

WHEREAS, Bob Dudley Smith serves as an example of vitality and dedication to the people of Tennessee, and he should be duly recognized for the boundless energy and remarkable talent he brings to all his chosen endeavors, athletic and otherwise; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED SEVENTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING, that we join with the family, friends, colleagues, and former teammates of Bob Dudley Smith in congratulating him upon his induction into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame, commend him for his substantial legacy as an athlete and businessman, and offer our deep appreciation for the dedication that he has shown our State.

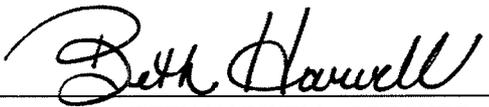

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 146

ADOPTED: April 4, 2011

RON RAMSEY
SPEAKER OF THE SENATE

BETH HARWELL, SPEAKER
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APPROVED this 14th day of April 2011

BILL HASLAM, GOVERNOR